July 13, 1968

Dear Harold and Lil:

I am enclosing the check for $897.08. This check represents the money I owe you on Dell royalty payments after the original advance. I thought the checks, send to me, were for me, and assumed that you too were receiving checks.

I imagine that you are annoyed by the Times' artucles on Epstein. His New Yorker piece dismisses you Harold in a sentence. But I am sure that you have read both.

Sonia is still here and we would like to come down for a visit. The problem is that each weekend arrives before we have planned for it.

I would like to know what is happening with the investigation and how are the sales on Photographic Whitewash?

I have submitted my novel and now begin the long path towards finding an agent and a publisher.

Sincerely,

Jack